INVESTIGATION:

Sgt. Williamson, Star #1866, Unit 012, contacted the Office of Professional Standards on 30 August 1997 at 2235 hours and registered a complaint with Inv. Wilmouth, Star #82, on behalf of the complainant, [REDACTED] who is [REDACTED] assigned to Unit 146. [REDACTED] made various allegations of physical abuse against Officer Robert Poholik, which abuse allegedly occurred during [REDACTED] arrest. (Att. #2)

Sgt. Williamson further reported that he was on the scene of [REDACTED] arrest and witnessed same. Sgt. Williamson reported that [REDACTED] stepped from a bar during a narcotics investigation where a large crowd had gathered. Tactical officers at the scene had radioed for assistance and Officer Poholik and his partner, Officer Scott Martin, responded. Sgt. Williamson reported that [REDACTED] was asked numerous times to leave the area, but refused and was subsequently placed under arrest. [REDACTED] began to struggle with Officer Poholik and was placed on the ground and handcuffed. [REDACTED] was transported to the 012th district by Officers Poholik and Martin and charged with Disorderly Conduct. (Att. #2)

Sgt. Williamson reported that while inside the 012th District [REDACTED] informed Officers Poholik and Martin that he was a Police Department employee so Sgt. Williamson interviewed him. Sgt. Williamson stated that [REDACTED] told him that he should not have been arrested because he was just trying to see what was going on and added that the arresting officers had no right to make him leave the area. [REDACTED] told Sgt. Williamson that Officer Poholik threw him to the ground and slapped him on his face at the scene of arrest and that once inside the 012th District Station Officer Poholik slapped him on both sides of his face numerous times while he was handcuffed to a wall. (Att. #2)

Sgt. Williamson stated that he did not witness Officer Poholik commit any misconduct during [REDACTED] arrest. Sgt. Williamson stated that [REDACTED] struggled briefly with Officer Poholik who placed him into a squad car.

Sgt. Williamson reported that Officers Scott Martin, Gary Makowski, Humberto Candalario and Antonio Ponce were witnesses to [REDACTED] arrest. (Att. #2)

[REDACTED] provided two interviews - one at the onset of the investigation and the second after once the accused and the witness officers were interviewed. [REDACTED] stated that he was [REDACTED] and had consumed approximately four beers when he noticed other patrons of the tavern getting up and going towards the front door. [REDACTED] stated that he stood inside near the front door, and watched as Officer Poholik stood over a male/Hispanic named [REDACTED] and began striking him in the face. [REDACTED] stated that he yelled at Officer Poholik, telling him to stop beating [REDACTED] and admonished him for doing so, since [REDACTED] was already handcuffed. [REDACTED] stated that Officer Poholik told [REDACTED] to leave the area, but he responded that he was on private property and was just watching the arrest and minding his own business. Officer Poholik walked towards [REDACTED] and stated, "Come on" and [REDACTED] asked, "For what?" and Officer Poholik told [REDACTED] he was under arrest. [REDACTED] asked Officer Poholik why he was being arrested, but Officer Poholik grabbed [REDACTED] by his shirt and threw him forward towards the ground causing scrapes on his left shoulder and right elbow. [REDACTED] stated that he lost consciousness at this point and only recalled being dragged to the squad car. [REDACTED] stated that he was transported to the district along with [REDACTED] by the arresting officers, identified as Officers Poholik and Martin. [REDACTED] stated that while inside the squad car Officer Poholik slapped his face, so he told him that he worked with the Chicago Police Department and alleged that Officer Poholik was committing "police brutality". (Atts. #12,#54)

[REDACTED] continued that once inside the District Station Officer Poholik chained him to a wall and [REDACTED] was placed in another interview room. [REDACTED] stated that Officer Poholik began asking him questions, but when he responded Officer Poholik would slap [REDACTED] [REDACTED] stated that Officer Poholik returned with some supervisors including Sgt. Williamson. [REDACTED] told Sgt. Williamson his unit of assignment and identified his commander and supervisors and further stated that he wanted to file a C.R. Number against Officer Poholik.

R/I asked [REDACTED] if he fought, threatened, struggled or resisted arrest and he stated that he did not remember because he passed out. In a later interview he stated that "no". [REDACTED] stated that he did not make any physical contact with Officer Poholik. R/I asked [REDACTED] if he told the police that they could not come inside the tavern and he stated, "no" and added, "I'm not the owner, I'm just a patron there".

R/I asked [REDACTED] why he did not leave the area as instructed by the police and he stated that he was not doing anything wrong and felt that Officer Poholik wanted him to leave so he would not witness what was going on. [REDACTED] stated that he was not standing outside the tavern, but was near the second open door and the incident occurred outside the tavern approximately 10 feet away. R/I asked [REDACTED] if he told the arresting officers, "I'll have your jobs" or "You don't know who you're fucking with" and he stated that he never said this.

R/I asked [REDACTED] to describe his injuries after allowing him to review the photos taken of him by an Evidence Technician. [REDACTED] stated that his right eye was swollen as a result of being slapped by Officer Poholik and he had dirt on his left shoulder after Officer Poholik threw him to the ground. He sustained a scrape on his left shoulder and right elbow as a result. (Atts. #12, #54)

[REDACTED] was

apprehended and detained. Officer Borja recovered the bottle. Officer Candelario told Officer Ponce to detain [REDACTED] for Delivery of a Controlled Substance. (Atts. #14, #19, #20, #21)

[REDACTED] stated that he did not witness anyone else's arrest. [REDACTED] stated that he was not injured during the incident. (Att. #51)

Officer Scott Martin, the officer who arrested [REDACTED] stated that he and Officer Poholik were on routine patrol when they monitored a call for assistance by members of the tactical team. They went to [REDACTED] and placed the subject, later identified as [REDACTED] inside their squad car and brought him to [REDACTED] where the rest of the tactical team was located.

Once the officers arrived at [REDACTED] Officer Martin observed four subjects standing near a wall so Officer Martin remained inside the squad car with the prisoner while Officer Poholik exited the vehicle to assist the tactical officers. Officer Martin stated that he saw a crowd gathering. Officer Poholik returned to the squad car with [REDACTED] in custody and once he was placed inside the squad car he was transported to the district station for processing. (Att. #44)

Tactical Officers Candelario and Borja provided written statements. Officer Candelario and Borja stated that they observed a narcotics transaction at [REDACTED] but when Officer Candelario approached the offenders for a field interview [REDACTED] ran, but Officer Candelario pursued him on foot while Officer Borja followed him in the squad car. Officer Ponce remained with the other offenders. [REDACTED] was apprehended at [REDACTED] and narcotics were recovered. Once Officers Candelario and Borja returned to where Officer Ponce was holding the other offenders Officer Candelario noticed that a crowd had gathered. Officer Ponce stated that he radioed for assistance and once it arrived he patted down two offenders and placed them into a squad car. A third offender was brought to [REDACTED] afterwards and Officers Borja and Candelario returned to the scene also. Officer Ponce stated that while en route to the station he was informed that there was a fourth arrestee, namely [REDACTED] but he denied witnessing his arrest. Officer Ponce denied witnessing any misconduct on the part of any Department member. (Att. #47)

Officer Poholik stated that he and Officer Martin placed [REDACTED] in their vehicle and left to meet Officer Ponce, who was detaining other possible offenders down the street. Once they arrived at [REDACTED] Officer Poholik saw Officer Ponce searching an offender near a bar and he noticed that a large crowd had gathered so he asked the crowd to disperse. The crowd began to disperse except [REDACTED] who had walked out of the bar onto the sidewalk. Officer Poholik stated that he asked [REDACTED] several times to leave, but he refused and added that he did not have to listen. Officer Poholik threatened [REDACTED] with arrest, but he remained at the scene so Officer Poholik told [REDACTED] that he was under arrest for Disorderly Conduct. [REDACTED] refused to put his hands behind his back when asked, but swung his arms and kicked.
